

CHAPTER
26

GUIDED READING Self-Rule for British Colonies

Section 2

A. Analyzing Causes and Recognizing Effects As you read this section, note some of the causes and effects of conflicts between Britain and its colonies.

Causes	Actions/Events	Effects
	1. Parliament creates Upper Canada and Lower Canada in 1791.
	2. Nova Scotia and New Brunswick join with the Province of Canada to form the Dominion of Canada in 1867.
	3. British annex New Zealand in 1838.
	4. British government formally joins Ireland to Britain in 1801.
	5. During the Great Famine, British government forces Irish peasants to continue paying rent.
	6. Irish nationalists rebel in Dublin in 1916.

B. Summarizing On the back of this paper, define the terms dominion, penal colony, and home rule.