

★ Guided Reading Activity 6-3

DIRECTIONS: Filling in the Blanks In the space provided, write the word or words that best complete the sentence. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.

1. The _____ of the mid-1800s stemmed in large part from the revival of religious fervor.
2. _____, a prominent minister, insisted that the nation's citizenry should take charge of building a better society.
3. One striking feature of the reform movement was the overwhelming presence of _____.
4. A number of reformers argued that no social vice caused more crime, disorder, and poverty than the excessive use of _____.
5. New reformers energized the temperance campaign, and in 1851 Maine passed the first state _____ law.
6. Underlying the prison reform movement was a belief in _____ prisoners rather than merely locking them up.
7. New prisons, called _____, were intended to be places where individuals would work to achieve remorse.
8. In the early 1800s, many reformers began to push for a system of _____, or government-funded schools open to all citizens.
9. One of the leaders of the public education movement was Massachusetts legislator _____.
10. In 1852 Massachusetts passed the first _____ school attendance law.
11. The development of _____ and other work centers separated the home from the workplace.
12. The idea that women should be homemakers and take responsibility for developing their children's characters evolved into a set of ideas known as _____.
13. Margaret Fuller believed that if men and women were treated equally, it would end _____ in society.
14. The Seneca Falls Convention marked the beginning of an organized _____.