Name Class Date

Chapter Tutorial

Central Asia

1. zinc 2. caravan 2. caravan 3. nomads 4. transhumance 5. yurts UNDERSTANDING MAIN IDEAS 1. Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? 2. Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their economies?	IDENTIFYING TERMS Cho	ose the term that correctly matches each definition.
C. element important in metal processing d. people who move often from place to place e. moving herds from mountain pastures in the summer to lowland pastures in the winter 5. yurts UNDERSTANDING MAIN IDEAS 1. Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? 2. Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their	1. zinc	a. movable round houses of wool felt mats
3. nomads 4. transhumance 5. yurts UNDERSTANDING MAIN IDEAS 1. Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? 2. Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their	2. caravan	b. group of people traveling together for protection
4. transhumance e. moving herds from mountain pastures in the summer to lowland pastures in the winter 5. yurts UNDERSTANDING MAIN IDEAS 1. Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? 2. Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their		c. element important in metal processing
5. yurts UNDERSTANDING MAIN IDEAS 1. Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? 2. Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their	3. nomads	d. people who move often from place to place
 yurts Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their 	4. transhumance	.
 Why are most of the region's people clustered in the southeast? Where are Central Asia's main energy resources found? What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their 	5. yurts	to lowiand pastures in the writter
 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their
 3. What changes did Timur bring to the region during his rule? 4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their
4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today.5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their	2. Where are Central Asia's	main energy resources found?
4. Explain how the Soviet emphasis on education and health care still affects Central Asia today.5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their
Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their	3. What changes did Timur	bring to the region during his rule?
Asia today. 5. What factors limit the ability of the Central Asian countries to improve their
•	-	mphasis on education and health care still affects Central
•
		oility of the Central Asian countries to improve their

Name	Class	Date
Chapter 18 Tutorial, continue	ed
THINKING CRITICALLY 1. Drawing Inferences Why is	s it that the Issyk-Kul ne	ever freezes over?
2. Analyzing Information Wh throughout Central Asia?	at benefits did the Russ	ians achieve by building railroads
3. Drawing Conclusions Why	is it that Central Asia h	as relatively few big cities?
EXPLORING INTERDISCIPLIN 1. History Why did Central As		ne late 1400s?
2. Religion How did the Sovie Asia?	ts go about trying to eli	minate religion from Central
WRITING ABOUT GEOGRAPH Describing Imagine that you an Write a letter to a friend back ho	d your family are vacati	ioning at Kyrgyzstan's Issyk-Kul.

activities.