

CHAPTER 6

Guided Reading Strategies 6.2

Human Systems

READING THE SECTION As you read the section, match each description in the left column with the correct term in the right column. Write the letter of the term in the space provided.

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| _____ 1. Innovation that involved growing plants and taming animals                  | a. urbanization                |
| _____ 2. Growth in the proportion of people living in towns and cities               | b. pastoralism                 |
| _____ 3. Most important centers of economic power and wealth                         | c. domestication               |
| _____ 4. Area in city center dominated by large stores, offices, and buildings       | d. edge cities                 |
| _____ 5. Clusters of large buildings away from the central business district         | e. shifting agriculture        |
| _____ 6. Type of agriculture in which food is produced by a family for its own needs | f. agribusiness                |
| _____ 7. Type of agriculture in which farmers clear trees or brush for planting      | g. central business district   |
| _____ 8. Type of agriculture that involves herding animals                           | h. market-oriented agriculture |
| _____ 9. Type of agriculture in which farmers grow products to sell to consumers     | i. subsistence agriculture     |
| _____ 10. Operation of specialized commercial farms for more efficiency and profits  | j. world cities                |

POST-READING QUICK CHECK After you have finished reading the section, in the space provided, explain why learning how to raise animals and grow crops were two of the most important developments in human history.

---

---

---

---