Name	Date	Class
★ Content Vocab	ulary Activity 14
Becoming a World Po	wer, 1872–1912
word or term to identify i		nn with the correct content vocabulary ne letter of the correct term in the space the page.
1. independent countrol of another control o	ountry that is actually unde	er the A. dollar diplomacy
	,	B. Open Door policy
2. extreme nation	alism marked by an aggres	sive for- C. guerrilla idea. Then answer the question at the bottom of the page.

1. independent country that is actually under the control of another country
2. extreme nationalism marked by an aggressive foreign policy
3. joining a country's business interests with its diplomatic interests abroad	D. E.	jingoism autonomy
4. actions by one nation to exercise political or economic control over a smaller or weaker nation	F.	sphere of influence
5. policy that allowed each foreign nation in China to trade freely with other nations' spheres of influence		•
6. armed fighters who use surprise attacks and sabotage rather than open warfare
7. section of a country where one foreign nation enjoyed special rights and powers
8. a people's right to have their own government Pulitzer used yellow journalism to influence the attitudes of
			-
	 independent country that is actually under the control of another country extreme nationalism marked by an aggressive foreign policy joining a country's business interests with its diplomatic interests abroad actions by one nation to exercise political or economic control over a smaller or weaker nation policy that allowed each foreign nation in China to trade freely with other nations' spheres of influence armed fighters who use surprise attacks and sabotage rather than open warfare section of a country where one foreign nation enjoyed special rights and powers a people's right to have their own government 	 independent country that is actually under the control of another country extreme nationalism marked by an aggressive foreign policy joining a country's business interests with its diplomatic interests abroad actions by one nation to exercise political or economic control over a smaller or weaker nation policy that allowed each foreign nation in China to trade freely with other nations' spheres of influence armed fighters who use surprise attacks and sabotage rather than open warfare section of a country where one foreign nation enjoyed special rights and powers a people's right to have their own government Define yellow journalism. Then explain how William Randolph Houlitzer used yellow journalism to influence the attitudes of American 	 independent country that is actually under the control of another country extreme nationalism marked by an aggressive foreign policy joining a country's business interests with its diplomatic interests abroad actions by one nation to exercise political or economic control over a smaller or weaker nation policy that allowed each foreign nation in China to trade freely with other nations' spheres of influence armed fighters who use surprise attacks and sabotage rather than open warfare section of a country where one foreign nation enjoyed special rights and powers a people's right to have their own government dollar diplomacy guerrilla jingoism autonomy sphere of influence imperialism imperialism